JULIE'S JAUNTS

Spring has arrived and what better time of year to get out in the fresh air, so for this edition of Julie's Jaunts I decided to join one of the very popular Sudbury Guided Walks, arranged by our very own Tourist Information Centre.

As you can't have failed to notice, one of the things that brings visitors to our town is the connection with Thomas Gainsborough and so I decided that I would go along on the 'Strolling in Gainsborough's Footsteps' walk. There are other tours to choose from including Sudbury Silk, The Saxon's in Sudbury and our regular monthly walk, which includes a visit to see Simon of Sudbury's head!

It was a rather blustery Saturday morning when I joined the group of seven other visitors at the Tourist Information Centre, where we met Claire Partner, our Blue Badge accredited guide and received a cheery welcome. Claire started the Gainsborough story outside the library and we then made our way down Friars Street to Buzzards Hall, where we learned of its Gainsborough connection. I don't want to tell you what we found out, but it appears that Thomas was from a rather large family who definitely made their mark in our lovey town. The walk was a gentle stroll with plenty of stops to listen to the informative stories that Claire had to share with us. A highlight was gaining access to All Saints Church, where the charming Mr Webb gave us a talk on the history of the building and allowed us access to a rather special wall painted family tree. After nipping into the Mill Hotel to see their feline celebrity, we ended the tour at St Gregory's Church. As you will see from the photograph, the sun was shining and the smiles on the visitor's faces reveal that everyone had really enjoyed the walk.

At just £6 for adults and £4 for children (5-15) this guided walk represents excellent value for money. It is ideal for locals who want to find out a little more about the history of Sudbury, discover some hidden gems and perfect for visitors, so next time you have guests, treat them and yourself to one of our guided walks.

The next 'Strolling In Gainsborough's Footsteps' guided walk is Saturday 1st June at 1.30pm. The cost is £9 which includes entry into Gainsborough's House museum. This walk is part of the Suffolk Walking Festival and is available to book online or at the Tourist Information Centre in the library.
